Notes

- Some of the syllabics finals may be ambiguous on the map above:
  - ▷ The w-dot is on the backquote key, as in  $\underline{4}$  not to be confused with the period .
  - ▷ The p-final is on the shift-W key, as in  $\underline{\triangleleft}$  the ejective diacritic is on the slash key, as in  $\underline{\subseteq}$
  - ▷ The k-final is on the shift-R key, as in  $\Delta$  the nasal diacritic is on the z key, as in  $\Delta$
  - ▷ The m-final is on the shift-Y key, as in  $\underline{\triangleleft c}$  the aspirate diacritic is on the x key, as in  $\underline{\triangleleft c}$
  - ▷ The y-final is on the shift-P key, as in 4 + 1 not to be confused with the plus-sign + 1
  - ▷ For convenience, the t-final is on the m key, as in  $\underline{\triangleleft}$
- On Macs, when the CAPS-LOCK is turned on, the keyboard reverts to a US English layout.
- By holding down the Right-Alt key (Windows) or Option key (Mac), it is possible to access the numbers and punctuation marks as mapped on a US English keyboard.
